First Term Course Offered*

Fall 2020

Explanation for Course Create* This is a course that will be required for first-year and second-year students in the Neuroscience Ph.D. program that is scheduled to admit its first class in Fall 2020. It is similar to the Proseminar required for the Experimental Psychology Ph.D. program (PSY 758). It includes professional development content, weekly research talks, and facilitates cohort bonding for new students in the program.

Are you adding a Service-Learning designation to this course?* Yes No

If the Service-Learning designation is being added to this course:

A syllabus in Word or PDF format must accompany this form.

Graduate syllabi must meet the minimum criteria as required by the Provost's office (See Semester Memo under Executive Vice President and Provost Policies and Forms www.unlv.edu/policies). Graduate courses that are linked to undergraduate courses (300/500 and 400/600 level joint courses) must clearly state in the syllabus how the class experience and expectations are different for graduate students, what additional requirements students enrolled in the graduate level course must fulfill, and how the grading scale will be applied to graduate students.

Please attach a current syllabus by navigating to the Proposal Toolbox and clicking  in the top right corner.

Information about Service-Learning is available here. Faculty can visit the faculty Service-Learning page as well as the UNLV Guide for Service Learning for additional information.

If adding Service-Learning designation, syllabus is attached Attached
