CROSS-LISTING RATIONALE

Please answer the following questions in the "rationale" field below:

What aspect of graduate preparation is met via this course that goes beyond the undergraduate program?

What common aspects are offered in the cross-listings and what grad level pieces are not?

What would be beneficial in offering the cross-listed courses from a graduate education perspective?

Cross-listing or Combining Rationale:

What aspect of graduate preparation is met via this course that goes beyond the undergraduate program?

The graduate portion of the course requires a higher level of writing and critical thinking.

What common aspects are offered in the cross-listings and what grad level pieces are not?

The only difference is the case study portion of the course. Undergraduates must provide a thoughtful solution to the randomly assigned case study. Graduate students must compose new case study problems on randomly assigned topics.

What would be beneficial in offering the cross-listed courses from a graduate education perspective?

Graduate students looking to study human performance from the unique perspective of first responders and military populations would benefit from this class, which is not common in most undergraduate or graduate programs.

Service Learning Designation

Are you adding a Service-Learning designation to this course?* Yes No

If the Service-Learning designation is being added to this course:

An accessible syllabus in Word or PDF format must accompany this form.

Graduate syllabi must meet the minimum criteria as required by the Provost's office (See Semester Memo under Executive Vice President and Provost Policies and Forms <https://www.unlv.edu/policies/current-policies>). Graduate courses that are linked to undergraduate courses (300/500 and 400/600 level joint courses) must clearly state in the syllabus how the class experience and expectations are different for graduate students, what additional requirements students enrolled in the graduate level course must fulfill, and how the grading scale will be applied to graduate students.

Please attach a current accessible syllabus by navigating to the “attach a file” icon at the right of this form.

Information about Service-Learning is available here. Faculty can visit the faculty Service-Learning page as well as the UNLV Guide for Service Learning for additional information.
