Explanation for Course Create*

This course has been taught as a special topics course for 10 years and remains popular and current; clearly, it is an important subject within CSIEME content areas that has grown in its significance in the last 20 years such that having a course solely dedicated to this subject is not only warranted, but overdue. It will make our graduates more competitive in the job market, and more effective as scholars/educators working in a CSIEME-related position post graduation.

Are you adding a Service-Learning designation to this course?*

Yes No

If the Service-Learning designation is being added to this course:

A syllabus in Word or PDF format must accompany this form.

Graduate syllabi must meet the minimum criteria as required by the Provost's office (See Semester Memo under Executive Vice President and Provost Policies and Forms www.unlv.edu/policies). Graduate courses that are linked to undergraduate courses (300/500 and 400/600 level joint courses) must clearly state in the syllabus how the class experience and expectations are different for graduate students, what additional requirements students enrolled in the graduate level course must fulfill, and how the grading scale will be applied to graduate students.

Please attach a current syllabus by navigating to the Proposal Toolbox and clicking  in the top right corner.

Information about Service-Learning is available here. Faculty can visit the faculty Service-Learning page as well as the UNLV Guide for Service Learning for additional information.

If adding Service-Learning designation, syllabus is attached
