No more than a total of 6 credit hours may be selected from 600-level courses. A comprehensive examination is required of each M. A. student, who will choose either a three-hour written exam or a sixty- to ninety-minute oral exam and prepare a reading list for the examination with the supervision and approval of the advisor and the examination committee. The reading list will comprise at least twenty authors, and the selections should recognize diversity of genre, gender, culture, and period. At least seventeen of those authors should be chosen from the master reading list on the English Department website. Three other authors not on the master list may be added. If taken during the semester of graduation, the exam must be scheduled no later than three weeks before the end of classes. The Graduate College designates deadline dates for each semester. See graduatecollege.unlv.edu. Students must demonstrate competency in the reading of one foreign or computer language. ~~This requirement may be satisfied by~~ Competency in a foreign language is demonstrated either by passing a translation examination administered by the English Department or by earning a B or better in WLC 198 or ~~by passing in an upper-division or graduate course in the literature of a translation examination (with aid)~~ language, taken within seven years of enrollment. Competency in a ~~dictionary if desired~~ administered computer language is demonstrated by successful completion of an appropriate project supervised by UNLV faculty, with approval of the student's academic advisor and ~~evaluated by the English Department Director of Graduate Studies.~~ A master's thesis, which carries six credits, is optional (although recommended) for the literary study emphasis and optional for the language studies emphasis. It is normally written during two consecutive semesters and must conform to the guidelines set forth by the Graduate College in this catalog and in its Thesis and Dissertation Manual. In consultation with his/her advisor, a student will organize a thesis committee of at least three departmental members. In addition, a fourth member from outside the department, known as the Graduate College Representative, must be appointed. An additional committee member may be added at the student and department's discretion. Please see Graduate College policy for committee appointment guidelines. The M. A. thesis should be an original contribution to knowledge about a suitable literary literary or linguistic subject and comprise 40-75 pages. Thesis projects must be designed, developed, and written in close consultation with an appropriate thesis advisor and with the student's thesis committee.

Plan Graduation Requirements

The student must submit all required forms to the Graduate College and then apply for graduation up to two semesters prior to completing his/her degree requirements.

The student must successfully pass the comprehensive exam and submit the Final Exam Results by the posted deadline.

If a thesis is completed, the student must submit and successfully defend his/her thesis by the posted deadline. The defense must be advertised and is open to the public.

After the thesis defense, the student must electronically submit a properly formatted pdf copy of their thesis to the Graduate College for format check. Once the thesis format has been approved by the Graduate College, the student will submit the approved electronic version to ProQuest. Deadlines for thesis defenses, format check submissions, and the final ProQuest submission can be found here.
