

Master of Science - Clinical Mental Health Counseling

Plan Description

The Department of Counselor Education, School Psychology & Human Services offers a 60 credit Master of Science (M. S.) – Clinical Mental Health Counseling. Graduates of the M. S. program are eligible to sit for the National Counselor Examination in order to qualify for the National Certified Counselor (NCC) credential. The Clinical Mental Health Counseling program, a ~~60-credit hour~~ 60 credits course of study, is designed to train professional counselors for work in a variety of community and mental health settings. Community mental health counselors work in local, state, and federal agencies, as well as private for-profit and non-profit agencies. The Clinical Mental Health Counseling M. S. degree offers a unique arena for the development of counseling theory and in depth research in issues impacting community and mental health, as well as continuing the development of professional counselors to meet the diverse needs of Southern Nevada, the region, and the nation. Faculty members in the Department of Counselor Education endeavor to promote excellence in ~~counselor coun~~ selor education and counseling research. Our graduate counseling programs prepare students to: Serve as professional counselors, advocates, and leaders who maximize opportunities for individuals, groups, and communities with a particular emphasis on helping underserved and oppressed client populations; Address developmental, academic, career, mental health, socio-cultural, and wellness needs of clients seeking counseling; Help individuals, groups and communities strive to find meaning, involvement, worth, and dignity in their lives; Engage in action research and program evaluations to further the knowledge base and best practice initiatives of the counseling profession; and Advocate with local, state, and national organizations to promote client and societal wellbeing.
