If yes, describe changes to learning objectives:

Provide a Brief Summary of Proposed Changes

- 1) Convert the current residential MPH program to a fully online subplan without any concentrations.
- 2) A new core requirement, EOH 707 - Practice of Public Health, is being added to all subplans. EOH 707 would need to be completed for deficient Ph.D. students without an MPH degree who are admitted into the Public Health Ph.D. program. Program changes will be initiated to address these.
- 3) The total number of credits to graduate is being changed from 45 to 47 credits.
- 4) The description of the 0-3 credits of elective courses was revised to replace the word "project" with "professional paper".

Provide a rationale for each proposed change

- 1) Making the MPH program fully online is likely to make it available for potential students who:
 - do not have time to come to campus to take courses;
 - do not live in the Las Vegas area.

New students will be required to choose a subplan and follow its degree sheet including EOH 707, in this case. Current students could switch subplans and adopt the requirements of this new subplan, but they would be required to complete the degree as proposed including EOH 707.
- 2) The new core class fulfills many content areas required for accreditation.
- 3) The addition of this core course increases the required credits needed to graduate by two, making the total 47 credits.
- 4) Language was revised for the new Generalist subplan (#5) and the EOH subplan (#2).

Do not make any changes to any information until the proposal has been launched in Step 4.

Follow these steps to change the program curriculum:

1. Click on  "View Curriculum Schema." Edit existing cores or click 'Add Core' and name your core (please use a comparable degree program in the current graduate catalog as a template). Edit or add any descriptive text (do not add courses until Step 2). Descriptive text is generally used in the following cores: Plan Description, Plan Admission Requirements, Plan Requirements, Plan Graduation Requirements.
2. There are two options for adding courses (see Step 3 to remove courses): "Add Course" and "Import Course." For courses already in the catalog, click on "Import Course" and find the courses needed. For new classes going through a Curriculog Approval Process click on "Add Course"-- a box will open asking you for the Prefix, Course Number and Course Title.
3. Click on  "View Curriculum Schema." Click on the area/header of the program where you would like to add courses. When you click on "Add Courses" it will bring up the list of courses available from Step 2. Select the courses you wish to add. For removing courses click on the  and proceed.

After you have launched proposal, update prospective curriculum here*

Plan Description

The Master of Public Health (MPH) Degree Program is designed to prepare students to be Public Health professionals in the private and public sectors with the overall goal of promoting and protecting the health of individuals in our society. The Master of Public Health (MPH) Degree Program also offers a fully online option, detailed below. Educational Objectives The purpose of the MPH Program is to prepare individuals to become effective health care practitioners, researchers and teachers who will competently identify public health problems and needs, develop effective strategies to address those needs, and promote appropriate services to be available for the protection of human health. At a minimum, the following criteria should be met to assure each student a) develops an understanding of the areas of knowledge that are basic to public health, b) acquires skills and experience in the application of basic public health concepts and of specialty knowledge to the solution of community health problems, and c) demonstrates integration of knowledge through a capstone experience. For more information about your program, including your graduate program handbook and learning outcomes please visit the Degree Directory.

Plan Admission Requirements

Application deadlines Applications available on the UNLV Graduate College website. To be considered for admission to the MPH, an applicant must: Hold a bachelor's degree or recognized equivalent from a regionally accredited institution and have adequate preparation in the biological, physical, or social sciences. A criterion for admission is at least a B (3.0) grade-point average or the equivalent in work completed after the first two years of a bachelor's degree program and in all post-baccalaureate course work. Complete the school's application process. Submit a resume and a personal essay describing what you perceive to be pressing public health issues, why a career in the field appeals to you, and how it will use your strengths and commitment. Submit three letters of recommendation. Submit competitive Graduate Record Exam (GRE) scores (or equivalent e.g., MCAT, LSAT) on verbal, quantitative and analytical measures. GRE scores will be assessed relative to other applicants in the pool, as well as relative to other graduate programs at UNLV. The GRE is required for all applicants and must be current within 5 years. All domestic and international applicants must review and follow the Graduate College Admission and Registration Requirements. Dental MPH Program The Doctorate of Dental Medicine-Masters of Public Health program is designed for those who seek a deeper understanding of disease prevention, health promotion, and health care administration and policy at both an individual and population level within the field of dentistry. The program enables students who graduate with both the Masters of Public Health and the Doctorate of Dental Medicine (DMD) to become leaders in oral health research, education, and community dental health promotion. After completing the program, graduates will be eligible to apply for a position within a dental public health residency program. Students interested in applying for the DMD-MPH program should begin by applying for admissions to the UNLV School of Dental Medicine. Please see the School of Dental Medicine (SDM) website for specific requirements and deadlines. Current dental students interested in the DMD-MPH program are encouraged to submit an application for permission to enter the program to the UNLV School of Dental Medicine Assistant Dean for Admissions and Student Affairs. This request form must accompany the Graduate College application for admissions into the MPH program. Completed packets will be submitted to the Graduate College for admissions to the Masters of Public Health program. Students must indicate on their Graduate College application form that they are registering for the DMD-MPH program and present evidence of being a current dental student in good standing by submitting a signed SDM application for permission to enter the program. While a dental student may apply for the program at any time, they may not register for classes within the School of Public Health until the Fall semester of their sophomore year. Students will also be limited in the number of MPH classes they are allowed to pursue during their sophomore year of dental school. A cap of one MPH class a semester will be enforced. The junior and senior year of dental school, students in the program will be allowed to take heavier course loads unless specifically stated otherwise by the Assistant Dean for Admissions and Student Affairs at the School of Dental Medicine. Students are accepted into a degree program as described in the Graduate Catalog. The faculty and corresponding sub-disciplines and sub-plans within the described programs are subject to change at any time.

With approval from the program change proposer (Dr. Jay Shen), the following have been revised: summary of proposed changes, rationale, elimination of HCA 702 from Generalist subplan, reduction in the number of total credits (from 47-50 to 47) for Generalist subplan, effective date, and changes effective to new students. Dr. Shen has been informed that an updated handbook needs to be uploaded to Curriculog because the changes included on the program change proposal form impact the program handbook. If he needs a Word version of the most recent handbook, one can be requested by emailing GradCurriculum@unlv.edu.
